Massachusetts Rifle Association

SPECIAL MATCHES—SPRING OF 1903

All matches open January 10th and close at close of shooting, June 17th, except the single shot sweepstakes and the monthly 50 shot off-hand match which will continue throughout the year.

REST

Standard target. Open to members. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) for ten best 10 shot scores. Entry, any 10 shot 200 yard ticket. Only the best score for any one day allowed, that is, the ten scores that count must each have been shot on a different day. Shooter may shoot as many scores per day as he wishes, the best for the day counting towards his ten scores.

OFF-HAND

No. 1. Single Shot Sweepstakes. Open to all. To be shot on each shooting day. Target, Columbia. Entry fee, twenty-five cents. Entry must be made before three p.m., match beginning immediately after three p.m. Prize, the entry fees.

This match will be shot on a fresh centre, and when any shooter makes a 1 another fresh centre will be put on and the old one preserved. After the shoot on June 17th, the 1s will be compared and a prize will be awarded for the best, that is, the one nearest the absolute centre.

No. 2. A 50 Shot Off-hand Match. Open to all. Will be shot as usual on the last Saturday of each month. No entry fee except the requisite shooting tickets. No prize unless there are three entries. For additional entries, other prizes as may be determined by prize committee.

No. 3. Off-hand. Open to members. Standard target. 200 yards. Shooters will be divided into three classes by prize committee. In each class prizes will be given to the number of two less than number of shooters to finish in such class. Ten best scores to count. Entries (B. or E. ticket) unlimited.

Winners of the first prize in each class will be entitled to compete in a 50 shot match on June 17th, the contestant making in the match, June 17th, the highest average compared with his aggregate in the re-entry, to win the grand prize instead of the prize for his class.

List of shooters as classified may be seen at the office on application. Any shooter whose name is not on this list will be classified on application to the prize committee. Any shooter who objects to his classification will kindly apply to Mr. O. Moore.

No. 4. Off-hand. Open to members. For the best 50 shot score on the standard target. Entry free except the requisite shooting tickets, but the shooter must announce his intention to shoot for this match and get a 50 shot ticket from the statistical officer. Prizes, if the range record is broken, an Association record cup for first prize, other prizes as may be determined later by prize committee. At least two prizes will be awarded in any case. Entries unlimited.

Short Range Rifle. Open to members and their guests. Rifle, any 22 or 25 calibre. Range, 50 yards. Target, Columbia. Entry, any 10 shot ticket. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) for ten best 10 shot scores. Entries unlimited.

Quick-firing Revolver. Open to all. Revolver, any allowed by M. R. A. rules or any magazine pistol allowed by M. R. A. rules. Target, standard. Entries (any 6 shot or 10 shot tickets) unlimited. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) for twenty best 6 shot scores. Each score must be fired within fifteen seconds from the command fire, the shooter to stand with the handle of the weapon touching his thigh and not cocked if a revolver, or as it would be carried in holster if magazine pistol.

Pistol. No. 1. Open to members who have never won gold pistol medal or badge. 50 yards. Standard target. Any revolver or pistol allowed by M. R. A. rules. Entries (any 10 shot tickets) unlimited. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) to be won on ten best 10 shot scores.

Pistol. No. 2. Open to members. For the best 100 shot score. Entry, the requisite shooting tickets and a 100 shot ticket which can be obtained from the statistical officer. Prizes, if the range record is beaten an Association record cup, other prizes to be announced later, but there will be at least three prizes unless there are less than four contestants. Range, 50 yards. Target, standard. Any pistol or revolver under M. R. A. rules. Re-entries allowed.

Military Rifle. No. 1. Expert Class. Open to all. Rifle, military rifle as allowed by the State for qualifications. Entry, any 10 shot 200 yard ticket. Re-entries allowed. Target, standard. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) for ten best scores of 10 shots each.

No. 1 a. A handsome trophy will be given to the military company, troop or battery making the best showing in this match on the following basis: The total scores of the five best men plus three points for each man from the organization who completes his ten scores without being in the first five from his organization. No prize unless three organizations finish.

No. 2. Non-Expert Class. Open to members of the M. R. A. and M. V. M. Winners of any M. R. A. gold rifle medal or badge, and experts and distinguished marksmen of the M. V. M. barred. Target, Creedmoor or standard American. Creedmoor count. Entry, any 10 shot 200 yard ticket. Re-entries allowed. Prizes (one less than number of contestants) for ten best 10 shot scores. Rifle as in military match No. 1.

No. 2 a. A trophy will be given to the military company, troop or battery making the best showing in this match on the same conditions as in military match No. 1 a, except that only one point will be allowed for additional men to finish outside of the first five.

Shooters in medal match F, or in medal match E military conditions, who wish to have their scores count in match 1 or 1 a, should have the shots entered on the ticket by standard count, and should have the style of rifle noted on the ticket. In all cases a competitor must designate before shooting match he wishes to shoot in, and a ticket will count in only one of the special re-entry matches for 10 shot scores.

Military Revolver Match. Open to members of the M. R. A. who have never won a gold pistol or revolver medal or badge, and to members of the M. V. M. who have never qualified with perfect scores

(two 30s). Revolver, military revolver as allowed by the State for qualifications. Entry, any 10 shot ticket. Re-entries allowed. Prizes for the ten best 10 shot scores (one less than the number of contestants). Target, Creedmoor or U. S. elliptical. Range, 50 yards.

A handsome trophy will be given to the troop, light battery, infantry or heavy artillery regiment, or brigade staff making the best showing in this match on the following basis: The best ten scores of the five best men from the organization plus one point for each man from the organization who completes his ten scores without being in the first five from his organization. No prize unless three organizations finish.
